(3) The Company shall, during the five years next after the date of its being registered for the transaction of fire insurance, increase its paid-up capital and surplus so that at the end of the first year it will be at least fifteen thousand dollars more than is required under the foregoing subsections of this section, and at the end of the second year at least thirty thousand dollars more than so required, and at the end of the third year at least forty-five thousand dollars more than so required, and at the end of the fourth year at least sixty thousand dollars more than so required, and at the end of the fifth year at least seventy-five thousand dollars more than so required.

(4) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this section the Company may transact all or any of the classes of insurance business authorized by section six of this Act when the amount of capital subscribed amounts to at least five hundred thousand dollars and the amount paid on its subscribed capital, together with the surplus, amounts to at least five hundred thousand dollars.

(5) In this section the word "surplus" means excess of assets over liabilities, including the amount paid on account of capital stock and the reserve of unearned premiums calculated pro rata for the unexpired term of all policies of the Company in force.

8. (1) The Company may acquire by agreement to insure or otherwise the whole or any part of the rights and property, and may assume the obligations and liabilities of Canadian Alliance Insurance Company, and in French, La Compagnie d'Assurance Alliance Canadienne, incorporated in the year 1937, under the laws of the province of Quebec, pursuant to the provisions of chapter two hundred and forty-three of the Revised Statutes of Quebec, 1925, being an Act entitled "An Act concerning Insurance Companies, Mutual Benefit Societies and Charitable Associations", in this Act called "the provincial company", and in the event of such acquisition and assumption the Company shall perform and discharge all such duties, obligations and liabilities of the provincial company in respect to the rights and property acquired as are not performed and discharged by the provincial company.

Approval of
Treasury
Board.

(2) No agreement between the Company and the provincial company providing for such acquisition and assumption shall become effective until it has been submitted to and approved by the Treasury Board of Canada.

Coming into force.

9. This Act shall come into force on a date to be specified by the Superintendent of Insurance in a notice in the Canada Gazette. Such notice shall not be given until this Act has been approved by a resolution adopted by at least two-thirds of the votes of the shareholders of the provincial company present or represented by proxy at a meeting duly called for that purpose nor until the Superintendent of Insurance has been satisfied by such evidence as he may require that such approval has been given and that the provincial company has ceased to do business or will cease to do business forthwith upon a certificate of registry being issued to the Company.

1932, c. 46,
to apply.

10. The Canadian and British Insurance Companies Act, 1932, shall apply to the Company.

officers.

8. A president, a vice-president, an honorary secretary and an honorary treasurer, who shall be the executive officers of the Foundation, shall be elected from among the Directors of the Foundation at their first meeting following the incorporation of the Foundation and thereafter at the first meeting of the Board of Directors following each annual general meeting, and shall hold office, unless in the meantime disqualified pursuant to the by-laws of the Foundation, until their successors are elected and qualified in their stead.

Assistant secretary
and treasurer.

9. The Board of Directors may appoint an assistant secretary and an assistant treasurer, neither of whom need be a director or member of the Foundation, or one person may be so appointed to fill both offices.

10. The Board of Directors may from time to time By-laws. enact, amend or repeal by-laws, not contrary to law or to this Act—

- (a) for defining and regulating the terms and conditions of admission to and termination of membership in the Foundation, dues, assessments and other charges to be paid by members, and the rights, duties and privileges of members;
- (b) the appointment, functions, duties and removal of all agents, officers and servants of the Foundation, including depositaries for its fund and securities;
- (c) the time and place for the holding of the annual meeting of the Foundation, the calling of meetings, regular and special, of the Board of Directors and of the Foundation, the quorum at meetings of the Directors and of the Foundation, the requirements as to proxies, and the procedure in all things at such meetings;
- (d) the appointment of an auditor or auditors; and
- (e) the appointment of honorary governors of the Foundation:

Provided that any such enactment, amendment or repeal Proviso. shall be subject to ratification at the next general meeting of the Foundation, and that unless so ratified it shall cease to have force or effect from the date of such meeting.

11. The Foundation may in its discretion, subject to Powers. provincial laws, receive and take into the Endowment Fund all grants, gifts, devises, bequests, benefits from insurance and trusts, property, whether real or personal, movable or immovable, and all estates therein contributed to and accepted by the Foundation for its objects and purposes. Without restricting the foregoing, contributions made to "Montreal Shriners' Hospital Foundation" or in the making of which any abbreviation of that name is used, shall be conclusively presumed to be contributions to the Endowment Fund of the Foundation.

12. Unless otherwise stipulated by the contributor, all Contributions. contributions to the Endowment Fund received and accepted by the Foundation shall be dealt with as follows:—

- (a) Contributions susceptible of deposit in a bank shall be deposited forthwith by the Foundation in an account maintained by it in a chartered bank;
- (b) Contributions in form of titles, securities or equities represented by certificates or documents of title constituting investments which the Foundation is entitled to hold and maintain, as in this Act set forth, shall be deposited with and retained in the custody of a trust company appointed by the Foundation for that purpose;

(c) All other contributions may be retained in the form in which they are received, provided, however, that the proceeds of the sale or conversion thereof, when effected, shall be dealt with as in this Act set forth.

Investments. 13. (1) As funds are from time to time available for investment they shall be invested and maintained in the debentures or bonds of or guaranteed by

(a) the Government of the Dominion of Canada; or

(b) the Government of any province of Canada; or

(c) the Government of Great Britain; or

(d) the Government of the United States of America.

(2) The Foundation may sell, convert and bring in, and may re-invest in said debentures or bonds the proceeds of, said investments as it may from time to time deem expedient.

Income, revenues, etc. 14. The income, revenues, interest and profits from the Endowment Fund shall, after provision for payment of the necessary operating expenses of the Foundation, be at the disposition of and available to the board of governors of the Hospital upon the demand of the said board of governors, solely for the promotion and accomplishment of the purposes and objects of the Hospital: Provided that the amount

Proviso. deductible to provide for payment of the necessary operating expenses of the Foundation shall not in any one year exceed seven and one-half per centum of the said income, revenues, interest and profits for such year.

Special funds. 15. Special funds, consisting only of admission and membership fees and other contributions by the members to such special funds, may be maintained and held available to and at the disposition of the Board of Directors for the expenses of administration of the Foundation, or for such other purpose or purposes, not contrary to the by-laws of the Foundation or to law or to this Act, as the Directors may from time to time determine.

Winding-up. 16. (1) If upon the winding-up or dissolution of the Foundation there remains any property whatsoever it shall be turned over to the Hospital.

(2) When effect cannot be given to the provisions of subsection one of this section then and then only shall the said property be applied in such manner as shall be determined by the Board of Directors to or for the benefit of any hospital for crippled children in Canada or any hospital in Canada which maintains beds for crippled children, and in either case which accepts children of all religious denominations free of charge.

(3) When effect cannot be given to the provisions of subsections one and two of this section then and then only shall the said property be applied in such manner as shall be determined by the Board of Directors to or for the benefit of any worthy charitable object.

(4) In the event that the Hospital shall cease to exist as an entity substantially enjoying and exercising the powers and substantially pursuing the objects and purposes now possessed and enjoyed, then the Board of Directors may cause the Foundation to be wound up and in that event shall cause the Endowment Fund to be disposed of in the manner herein set forth.

17. Upon the application of such proportion of the members as in his opinion warrants the application the Secretary of State may appoint one or more competent inspectors to investigate the affairs of the Foundation and to report thereon as he may direct, and upon such appointment subsections two to eight inclusive of section one hundred and eight of The Companies Act, 1934, chapter thirty-three of the statutes of 1934, shall apply in such investigation. Inspectors.
1934, c. 33,
s. 108.

18. Part three of The Companies Act, 1934, chapter thirty-three of the statutes of 1934, shall, so far as applicable and when not inconsistent with this Act, apply to the Foundation, and the Foundation shall have and may exercise all the powers conferred by the said Act so far as applicable to the Foundation. Application of part 3 of 1934, c. 33.

and control
of property.

13. All property purchased with the funds of the Society shall be the property of and shall be vested in the Society, and shall be administered, managed and controlled by the Board of Directors.

Property
of Letters
Patent Association.

14. (1) The Society may acquire the whole or any part of the rights and property of any kind whatsoever now belonging to the Letters Patent Association, and, in the event of such acquisition, the Society shall assume, perform and discharge all unperformed obligations and undischarged liabilities of the Letters Patent Association in respect to the rights and property acquired and may give any receipt or discharge in connection with any right, obligation or liability thereof.

Approval of
Treasury
Board.

(2) No agreement between the Society and the Letters Patent Association in connection with the acquisition of the rights and property of the Letters Patent Association, and with the assumption of its obligations and liabilities, shall become effective until such agreement has been submitted to and approved by the Treasury Board of Canada, and such Board shall not approve the agreement if it appears to it that more than one-third of the members of the Letters

Patent Association, present and voting at a meeting called for the purpose of considering such agreement, are opposed to it.

15. This Act shall come into force on a date to be specified by the Superintendent of Insurance in a notice published in the Canada Gazette, and such notice shall not be given until this Act has been approved by a resolution adopted by at least two-thirds of the votes of the members of the Letters Patent Association, present and voting at a meeting called for the purpose of considering such resolution, nor until the Superintendent of Insurance has been satisfied by such evidence as he may require, that such approval has been given and that the Letters Patent Association has ceased to do business, or will cease to do business forthwith upon a certificate of registry being issued to the Society, except such business as is necessary for the fulfilment of the terms of any agreement made under the provisions of section fourteen of this Act, and will forthwith upon the issue of the said certificate surrender its charter under the provisions of The Companies Act, 1934. WHEREAS Phyllis Beatrice Barnett Woodham, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, saleswoman, wife of Sidney James Valentine Woodham, radio communications superintendent, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the second day of June, A.D. 1924, at the said city, she then being Phyllis Beatrice Barnett, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Phyllis Beatrice Barnett and Sidney James Valentine Woodham, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Phyllis Beatrice Barnett may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Sidney James Valentine Woodham had not been solemnized.

Right to marry again.

7 GEORGE VI.

CHAP. 129.

An Act for the relief of Geraldine Charlotte Wrangel.

[Assented to 24th July, 1943.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Geraldine Charlotte Wrangel, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, wife of Cyrille Wrangel, who is domiciled in Canada and formerly resided at the said city of Montreal, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the twelfth day of August, A.D. 1931, at the city of Paris, France, in accordance with the civil law of France; that following such civil ceremony and on the same date, they were then married at the Russian Orthodox Church at the said city of Paris, and on the day following they went through a form of marriage at the chapel of the British Embassy at the said city of Paris, she then being Geraldine Charlotte Major, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriages and form of marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriages and form of marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriages
and form
of marriage
dissolved.

1. The said marriages and form of marriage between Geraldine Charlotte Major and Cyrille Wrangel, her husband, are, respectively, hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to
marry again.

2. The said Geraldine Charlotte Major may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriages and form of marriage with the said Cyrille Wrangel had not been solemnized.

CHAP. 130.

An Act for the relief of Irene Maud Pardellian Wright.

[Assented to 24th July, 1943.]

WHEREAS Irene Maud Pardellian Wright, residing at the city of Toronto, in the province of Ontario, store clerk, wife of Robert Dron Wright, electrician, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the fourteenth day of October, A.D. 1915, at the said city of Montreal, she then being Irene Maud Pardellian, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Preamble.

1. The said marriage between Irene Maud Pardellian and Robert Dron Wright, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Marriage dissolved.

2. The said Irene Maud Pardellian may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Robert Dron Wright had not been solemnized.

Right to marry again.

CHAP. 131.

An Act for the relief of Eleanore Jeanne Lonn Yanofsky.

[Assented to 24th July, 1943.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Eleanore Jeanne Lonn Yanofsky, residing at the city of Montreal, in the province of Quebec, wife of Sam Yanofsky, clerk, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the said city, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the fourteenth day of June, A.D. 1938, at the said city, she then being Eleanore Jeanne Lonn, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

dissolved

1. The said marriage between Eleanore Jeanne Lonn and Sam Yanofsky, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to
marry again.

2. The said Eleanore Jeanne Lonn may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Sam Yanofsky had not been solemnized.
